2. Following receipt of the above-mentioned information, ECOM reserves the right to request any further information necessary for Seller to demonstrate its compliance with the requirements of the EUDR with respect to the EUDR Products. Any such further information shall be provided by Seller to ECOM promptly after such request and in any event no later than ten (10) calendar days prior to the scheduled delivery of the EUDR Products.
3. Seller acknowledges and agrees that ECOM may be required to disclose, on a need-to-know basis and in accordance with applicable data protection, competition, and other relevant laws, information related to the EUDR Products to:

In such cases, Seller shall indemnify ECOM against any direct or indirect damages, losses, or fines arising from such violations, including but not limited to those resulting from the lack of marketability of the delivered EUDR Products. Seller's liability under this clause shall be limited to the value of the EUDR Products affected by such non-conformity.
6. ECOM shall notify Seller in the event of any amendment, repeal, or replacement of the EUDR that materially affects the obligations in this Annex. The terms of this Annex will be updated to reflect such changes, and Seller shall be informed of such amendments.
